A WALKOVER FOR BRATTLEBORO

Won Athletic Meet by 92 Points Against Combined Total of 16 for Three Other Teams—Rice High Man

Brattleboro high school's well balanced athletic team had an easy time on the Valley fair grounds Saturday in winning the interscholastic track meet in which Northfield, Bellows Falls and Springfield high schools competed with the home team. The total score was Brattleboro 92 points, Bellows Falls 10, Northfield 3 and Springfield 3, but it was in the work of ef-ferent athletes of the home team that the greatest interest was shown. Sherman and Rice in particular showed that they are above the average of schoolboy athletes. Sherman won the sprints and broad jump with ease.
Rice as easily won the quarter and half. He had to go his limit in the high jump, but with his ability to come through in a pinch he beat Murphy of Bellows Falls, who had cleared 5 feet 5 inches in class games at home.
Rice went into the mile after having won those three events and after competing in the 220-yard dash. By a wonderful finish he came from 50 yards back as they swung into the stretch and beat Long of Bellows Falls for the point that gave him the individual medal over Sherman. His individual score was 16 points.

Besides these two individual stars there was W. Haskell, easy winner of the high hurdles, who won first in the shot-put by beating his brother and finished third in the low hurdles. There was Angier, who won the low hurdles and was second in high hurdles.
There were Crosby, Bingham, Fitts, Wentworth, and others who were picking up from one to five points each and fighting only with teammates. With the exceptions of the half-mile, in which Hutchings of Springfield high ran a very pretty race, there was not a track event in which a competitor from an out of town school was dangerous. Although two men from Bellows Falls were placed in the trials of the low hurdles it was evident that neither of them, barring accidents, would be dangerous in the finals.

Sherman's performances were all of the record-breaking class. In each of the three events that he won he broke the record, clearing one-fifth of a second off of both the one hundred yard and two hundred and twenty yard dashes, while his broad jump record was inches over the previous records.

The last event, the mile, was the most spectacular as to finish, of any made and he pace for the half mile, and although it was not especially fast time, the half being run in 2:36, it was fast considering the rain and the cruddy condition of the track. Adams took up the pace and held it to the tape, when Harlow, who had been picked by the wise ones because of past performances, to win, came from behind and, running a beautifully judged race, managed to breast the tape as Adams plunged headlong over the line.
Aside from this contest for first place Rice's successful effort to win one more point to give him the individual prize of the meet was a feature. He trailed the bunch all through the race, saving himself for a supreme effort. At the three-quarter mark he began to go up and as the leaders, Adams and Harlow, swung into the stretch with Long of Bellows Falls 20 yards back, Rice from a position 50 yards in the rear of Long, who was the only outsider with a possible show of winning a point, began to lengthen his stride little more. It did not seem possible that he could make up the distance, but he made a wonderful sprint and beat Long by a yard for the point he wanted so badly. Considering that he had competed in every track event except the two hurdles and the 100 yard dash it was a remarkable effort, although good judgment would have been to refrain from such a needless effort.

The high jump and pole vault were the two field events that were really exciting because of the competition with athletes from other schools. In the high jump Murphy was expected to walk away with the five points.
When he and Rice had tied at five feet Rice was willing to have Murphy make one more jump at a higher mark and himself be content with second place for he was saving himself for the track events. The bar was put up an inch and Murphy failed. Rice was urged by his friends to try it and, after two attempts, cleared it. Murphy used up his three trials in a fruitless effort. Rice thus unexpectedly and rather against his will, taking five points that had been conceded to Bellows Falls through Murphy, for that young man had cleared five feet five inches in class games there. When measured it was found that Rice had cleared the bar at five feet one and one-half inch.

The pole vault was a still closer contest between Cahalane of Bellows Falls and Thayer of Brattleboro, for both cleared the bar at nine feet three inch-The points were divided and Cahalane won the toss for the medal.

A more thoroughly unsatisfactory day for such a meet could not have been selected if the authorities had tried. It rained most of the time that the events were being run and while the pole vault was in progress it rained hard, as it did during one of the hurdle races and the half mile. The attendance was fair, considering the day.

PELKY KILLED MCCARTY.

Blow in First Round Broke Prize
Fighter.

Luther McCarty, claimant of the white heavyweight championship of the world, was killed in the prize ring at Calgary, Alberta, Saturday by a blow struck by Arthur Pelky of Chicopee, Mass. The men were scheduled for a 10-round fight, and the fatal blow was delivered after the men had been in action only a minute and 45 seconds. It was delivered while they were breaking from a clinch. None of the 10,000 spectators realized that anyone clinch both men squared off in pugilistic attitude.

McCarty was seen to double up in a crouching attitude. To the spectators it looked as though his position was simply a fighting pose. He dropped lower and lower, however, his eyes rolling. Then he collapsed and fell full length on the floor of the ring. The referee assuming that Mc-Carty had been knocked out, stood over him to count off the seconds. It was the final count for the young fighter.

The referee called for a doctor and several responded. The mounted police were called in to clear the ring of the crowd, which had swarmed over the ropes. The physicians worked over the stricken fighter for eight minutes.
Then they pronounced him dead, but continued efforts to resuscitate him with artificial respiration for more than an hour.

Pelky was arrested during the evening, but was released on bail.

It was at first supposed that McCarty's heart was ruptured, as he appeared to have been struck a body blow.
The autopsy, however, showed that his neck was broken.

Pelky will be tried today on the charge of manslaughter.

Prophet and Philanthropist.

A St. Louis man left a large fortune to be applied to relief of immigrants passing through the city. The estate is embarrassed by the fact that the immigrants are disappearing and the fortune is becoming a useless accumulation. A man who undertakes to relieve posterity of its cares and obligations has to be something of a prophet as well as philanthropist.—Washington Star.

RECEPTION TO ATHLETES.

Visiting Participants in Track Meet Entertained at High School.

A reception was tendered Saturday evening in the high school hall to the visiting athletes and members of the schools who competed at the track meet in the afternoon. The high school orchestra played several selections and Miss Maude Miller and Miss Lamelle Langworthy played a violin duet.

Messrs. Sanders and Bingham gave their specialty which was such a feature of the recent band minstrels and the high school sang several songs.

Remarks were made by Dr. Elmer, Principal Smith and Coach Dietrich Stolte and the medals won at the meet were presented to the different team winners, after which refreshments were served. The concluding event was a ringing cheer for Principal Smith.

MANAGER BURNS ON HAND.

Northampton Players Reported for Practice This Morning.

Manager Burns of the Northampton Twins-State league team has arrived in that city and his players reported for practice this morning. The Northampton team opening the season much earlier than the other teams of the league.
Among the late recruits to his team are Sullivan, an outfielder, and Boute, a pitcher, both of New London, Heaney of Meriden is a candidate for third base. Paul, Rohague and Foran of last year's team are expected to join. It is possible that Partenhimer of last year's team may be re-engaged and McIntyre, who has been playing first for New London, is ready to join if wanted. The question of whether "Bill" Yale will play first is merely
